

Are you interested in teaching and mentoring middle and high school students in computer science and cybersecurity?

If so, Apply to be a:

Summer Teaching Ambassador

For the:

Maryland Center for Women in Computing

In this position, you will be a teaching assistant for:

Computer Science Connect [middle and high school students]

CyberSTEM Camp [middle school girls]

Intermediate CyberSTEM Camp [high school girls]

Cyber Defense Training Camp [high school girls and boys]

There may also be opportunities for curriculum development and working with high school teachers as a portion of some of the positions

Dates: Monday June 4– Friday August 10, 2018

(with no camps the week of July 4th)

Hours: 40 hours per week; Approximately 8:00am-4:00pm

Stipend: $4000-$4500 for the summer based on experience and which camps are most appropriate for you

APPLY ONLINE by Sunday April 15:

<https://go.umd.edu/SummerAmbassador>

You will need to submit:

Application, Resume, Copy of Unofficial Transcript, and Contact Information for one Reference.

MARYLAND CENTER FOR WOMEN IN COMPUTING

Questions? Contact

Kate Atchison at katea@cs.umd.edu