Are you interested in teaching and mentoring elementary, middle, and high school students in computer science?

Apply to be a Summer Teaching Ambassador with the Maryland Center for Women in Computing (MCWIC)!

Teaching Ambassadors will help with the following camps:

- Computer Science Connect for middle school girls
- Cyber Defense Training Camp for 11th and 12th grade students
- AI4 All for high school students
- JumpStart Computing for elementary students
- Wearables for high school girls
- Intro to Computing for high school students

Dates: Monday, June 3 through Friday, August 9, 2019

Hours: 40 hours per week; Approximately 8:00am-4:00pm

Stipend: range from $4000 to $4500

Requirements

Excitement and passion for teaching computing to a variety of ages

3.0 GPA

Successful completion of CMSC 131

Ability to pass a full background check

You will need to submit the following

- Online Application (link below),
- Resume
- Copy of Unofficial Transcript,
- Contact Info for Reference

APPLY ONLINE: https://go.umd.edu/SummerAmbassadors19

Applications are due on Thursday, April 11th

Questions? Please contact us at mcwic@cs.umd.edu